

Located 40km and a scenic 60 minute drive from Taveuni's Matei Airport, Paradise Taveuni is idyllically positioned on 5 landscaped acres, fringed with a dramatic background of an extinct volcano and a unique deep water frontage offering panoramic ocean views through out the Resort.

Covered in coconut trees and rainforest filled National Parks, Taveuni is well known as the 'Garden Island of Fiji' due to the abundance of flora. With 27 extinct volcanos, the rich soil ensures Taveuni is one of Fiji's most fertile areas. With waterfalls to the northeast of the island, the southwest has deep water close to shore and easy access to the world famous Rainbow Reef - a 32 km pristine reef covered in soft and hard corals giving Taveuni the reputation of being in the heart of the 'Soft Coral Capital of the World'!

Protected from the trade wind by rainforest covered mountains, Paradise enjoys calm, clear waters year round making it the perfect destination for scuba divers, as well as those looking for a tranquil and relaxing getaway.

With a large range of land activities, watersports, day spa and more, you can spend your days being as active or as relaxed as you wish. Couple this with the friendliest people on earth and there you have Paradise!
